Camp payments are non-refundable, we have assigned instructors for the campers prior to your scheduled day. Because of this, we do require a 24 hour cancellation policy. Cancellations that occur the night before or morning of, will not be refunded or made up. Once the camper boards the ferry, there cannot be any refunds or make up days, unless WE need to cancel the camp due to prolonged thunder and lightning. As a surf camp, it is always our intention to have campers in the water learning to surf or improving their skills. In the circumstance where camp is running and mother nature isn't co-operating in terms of ocean conditions or campers are uncomfortable, we can assure you that there will be plenty of beach activities to make up for the lack of surf!

The customer acknowledges and agrees that Bunger Sayville Surf Camp has no control in respect of the weather, surf or other physical conditions during any surf camp.
